NEW BUSINESS

10.1 CPSC Proposals – P. Fong
Documents were circulated with the agenda.

MOTION 1: Moved/Seconded
That the Faculty of Graduate Studies Council recommend that the Academic Planning and Priorities Committee approve the creation of the Graduate Certificate in Data Privacy program, as set out in the proposal provided to the committee, contingent upon Faculty of Science approval.

MOTION 2:
That the Faculty of Graduate Studies Council recommend that the Academic Planning and Priorities Committee approve the creation of the Master of Information Security and Privacy degree program, as set out in the proposal provided to the committee, contingent upon Faculty of Science approval.

CARRIED

P. Fong provided an overview of the program proposals and the following points were noted:

- Network Security and Software Security certificates went through the approvals process last year. They were the initial steps in developing the Master’s program, which is now proposed, along with the additional certificate in Data Privacy.
- The intention is to attract professional people wanting to change careers, and international students wanting a one-year Master’s program.
- Stackable certificates allow flexibility to take only one certificate, while any two certificates can lead to a capstone project and a Master’s degree.

Regarding reference letters, an addition is needed in the calendar entry to indicate that these may be requested of students, who have completed credit courses at a post-secondary institution, when applying for a second post-graduate certificate program or to the degree program.

10.2 Election of FGSC Representative to Graduate Academic Program Sub-committee – L. Young

Document was circulated with the agenda.

MOTION: Moved/Seconded
That FGS Council approve the nominee for FGS Council Representative for the Graduate Academic Program Sub-committee.

CARRIED

Secretary’s Note: Lisa Young stepped down from the Chair at this time to speak to agenda items 10.3 and 10.4, and Robin Yates assumed the role.

10.3 Supervisory Policy and Procedures – L. Young/ D. Book

Documents were circulated with the agenda.

MOTION: Moved/Seconded Lisa/ Jalel
That FGS Council recommend the revisions to the Supervisory Policy and Procedures to the General Faculties Council.

CARRIED

L. Young provided the background to the Supervisory Policy and Procedures and explained the changes made:
- Regarding formal evaluation of supervisory privileges
• Rewriting and ordering proceedings
• Changing wording for clarity

10.4 Operating Standard for Graduate Funding - L. Young

Documents were circulated with the agenda.

MOTION: Moved/Seconded
That FGS Council approve the FGS Funding Operating Standard.

CARRIED

L. Young explained the last substantive item under discussion in this document (4.15d) and the following points were noted:

• Any student who wins an external award should be better off than they were previously. The new wording encourages generosity.
• When students are admitted to a program, the conditions of offer must align with university expectations. Program expectations must be the same for all students.
• Wording such as “reasonable expectations” was suggested for program funding policies.
• Clarification is needed regarding status changes for international students. “Tuition residency” refers to how the student appears in the student system.
• The differential fee, which is returned to students, will be part of the Minimum Funding Amount.
• If a program wanted to provide more than the minimum one year and less than the minimum in a subsequent year, this would be an exception and would need special approval.
• Scholarships are intended to support students in their research, leading to their thesis completion. This is different from paying students for doing something which does not contribute towards their research. A reminder was given that students are at the university to be researchers not low paid workers.
• Completed program policies should be sent to the Dean of FGS for review. They need to be consistent with the FGS Operating Standard.
• Faculties may choose to have common policies, however, this is not expected, and the approach would not be suitable for all faculties.
• The Chair thanked FGS council members for their efforts and input through the process of developing the Funding Operating Standard.

10.5 FGS Appeals Committee Terms of Reference – L. Young/A. Klaiber-Langen

Documents were circulated with the agenda.

The Chair introduced A. Klaiber-Langen, Student Appeals Officer, who provided an overview of the changes to student appeals processes at the University of Calgary. The Chair reviewed the FGS Appeals Committee Terms of Reference. The following points were noted:

• The new Appeals Policy and Procedures will be effective January 1, 2019, resulting in greater transparency, consistency, and a more streamlined appeals process.
• There will be a centralized committee with legal support, rather than only faculty appeals.
• Faculty appeals will now focus on candidacy components and thesis exams (the first time through only), as well as miscellaneous issues (e.g. supervisor concerns).
• Central Appeals will handle discipline and second attempts at Candidacy and Thesis exams.
• “No right to appeal” will be given further thought. Students are able to seek judicial review at anytime through the court system.
• With the exception of the initial submission of appeal, extensions to appeal deadlines are acceptable.
• Training will be provided and required of anyone who will be sitting on an appeal committee. Scripts are being developed for the use of Appeals Committee Chairs. These will include reminders that hearings may not be recorded.
• These documents, along with the calendar changes, will come back to FGS Council in January for approval.
Further thoughts can be sent to L. Young or A. Klaiber-Langen.

Secretary’s Note: L. Young resumed her role as Chair.

10.6 Graduate College Proposal – L. Young

Documents were circulated with the agenda.

L. Young provided a brief overview of the Graduate College proposal and introduced R. Thompson, the founding head of The College. It was suggested that wording, indicating that The College will be subject to periodic review, be added prior to the proposal going to General Faculties Council in early December.

10.7 Academic Probation and GRADTIPS – S. Curtin/R. Yates

Documents were circulated with the agenda.

R. Yates provided a slideshow relating information about Academic Probation and the new GRADTIPS Program. The following points were noted:

- The new term “academic probation” will apply to students with an academic standing less than 3.0 in course based and certificate programs. It will be placed on their transcript with the intent to alert students to the fact that they may have to withdraw.
- Programs may still choose to have a student withdrawn, otherwise a process will be initiated by a letter being sent to the student regarding mandatory involvement in the GRADTIPS program.
- An on-line assessment will lead to meetings with Academic Advisors from FGS and an Academic Development Specialist at the Graduate Success Centre. Programming for the student will be determined, some aspects of which will be mandatory.
- Once the requirements are completed, and the Grade Point Average improves, “academic probation” will be removed from the student record.
- Calendar changes are now in place and this process will be in effect for January 2019.
- Recommendations for academic probation and the GRADTIPS program need to be submitted by programs, to FGS, in early January.
- If there is significant reason to not apply this notification on the transcript, FGS requires early notification from programs.
- MEng has been piloting this program. If it is successful, there will be parallel supports developed for on-line students.
- Thesis students can be advised/encouraged to voluntarily participate in this program. Please contact FGS regarding any concerns.

The Chair ended the meeting, thanking the GPDs who have completed their terms. D. Hansen was also thanked again, and noted for being a great citizen of the university as he has stepped in a number of times to fill important administrative gaps in FGS.

The Terms of Reference for five new scholarships were included for information in the meeting package.
